66

The image shows a musical score for drums, consisting of two staves. The top staff uses a standard drum notation system with 'x' marks for cymbals and various note heads for other drums. The bottom staff uses a simplified notation with stems and note heads. The score is divided into three measures. The first measure contains a series of rhythmic patterns. The second measure contains a similar pattern. The third measure contains a single note. The score is numbered '66' at the beginning and '3' at the end.

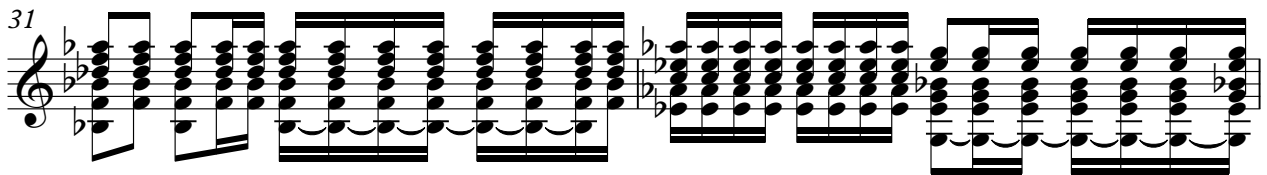

♩ = 72,000290

The score consists of 11 systems, each containing a standard musical staff and a guitar tablature staff. The first system includes a tempo marking of ♩ = 72,000290. The music is written in 4/4 time and features a complex, rhythmic pattern of chords and arpeggios. The tablature is written in a standard format with numbers 0-9 representing fret positions. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the 11th system.

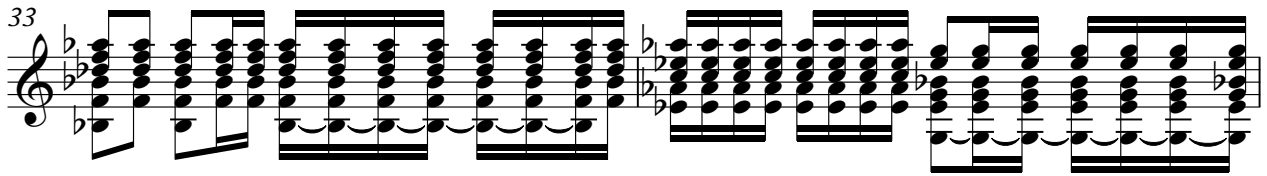

V.S.

This image displays a page of guitar tablature for an acoustic guitar, labeled 'AcGuitar1'. The page contains ten systems of music, each starting with a measure number: 12, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25, 27, and 29. Each system consists of a standard musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The notes on the staff are accompanied by guitar-specific notation: numbers 1-6 indicating fret positions on the strings, and symbols for bends (a curved line) and vibrato (a wavy line). The tablature is organized into two columns per system, with the left column containing the first four measures and the right column containing the next four measures of each system. The music features a complex, rhythmic pattern with many beamed notes and frequent bends.
