121

Musical score for measures 121-127. The piece is in a key with one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a 3/4 time signature. The notation is for a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). Measure 121 features a melodic line in the treble clef starting with a quarter note, followed by eighth notes, and a half note. The bass clef has whole rests. Measures 122-127 show various chordal textures, including sustained chords and moving lines in the treble clef, while the bass clef remains mostly at rest.

128

Musical score for measures 128-134. This system continues the piece. Measures 128-134 feature a more active treble clef with sustained chords and melodic fragments, often beamed together. The bass clef continues to have whole rests throughout this system.

135

Musical score for measures 135-142. Measures 135-142 show a continuation of the textures from the previous system. The treble clef has more complex chordal structures and some melodic movement, while the bass clef remains inactive with whole rests.

143

♩ = 30,000000

Musical score for measures 143-149. Measures 143-149 conclude the system. The treble clef features a final melodic phrase with a fermata over the last measure. The bass clef has whole rests. A tempo marking of a quarter note equals 30,000,000 is present above the staff.
