

This image displays a vertical sheet of musical notation for the song "Dead Inside". The notation is organized into multiple systems, each consisting of a single staff. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines, arranged in a vertical sequence. The overall layout is a long, narrow column of music.