This page of musical notation consists of ten systems, each representing a measure of music. The systems are numbered 107 through 125 on the left side. Each system contains two staves: a standard bass clef staff and a guitar-specific notation staff. The bass clef staff features a complex rhythmic and melodic line with many beamed eighth and sixteenth notes, often including slurs and ties. The guitar staff contains various chord diagrams, accidentals (primarily flats), and other guitar-specific notations. The overall style is that of a detailed guitar score, likely for a piece in a minor key given the prevalence of flats.

Musical score for bass guitar, measures 127-144. The score is written in bass clef and consists of ten staves. Each staff contains a series of chords and melodic lines, primarily using eighth and sixteenth notes. The music is characterized by a consistent rhythmic pattern and the use of flats (B-flat and E-flat) in the key signature. The notation includes stems, beams, and various note heads, with some notes marked with flats. The overall texture is dense and rhythmic.
