The guitar score is written in 4/4 time and consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a treble clef staff with chord names and a TAB staff with fret numbers and picking directions. The first system starts with a C major chord and continues with a sequence of C and Am chords. The second system begins with a triplet of Am chords. The third and fourth systems continue the alternating pattern of Am and C chords. The TAB staff uses numbers 0-3 to indicate frets and arrows to show picking directions. The score is labeled 'S-Gt' on the left.
