The first measure contains a dotted quarter note on the 1st fret of the 4th string, followed by four eighth notes on the 1st fret of the 4th string. The second measure contains four eighth notes on the 1st fret of the 4th string, followed by a dotted quarter note on the 4th fret of the 4th string. A double bar line with '3x' above it indicates a triplet. The triplet consists of three eighth notes: the first on the 1st fret of the 4th string, the second on the 3rd fret of the 4th string, and the third on the 0th fret of the 4th string. This is followed by two eighth notes on the 1st fret of the 4th string, then another eighth note on the 0th fret of the 4th string, and finally an eighth note on the 1st fret of the 4th string.
