

Heavenly Blues

The Outlaws
Hurry Sundown

Words & Music by Henry Paul

Standard tuning

Moderate ♩ = 148

f Morn-ing brings the sun- light ris- in' in m- y heart It's on- ly us to-ge- ther on the phone through the ma- gic line I find it's on- ly us a- part nev- er hurts to know you're not a- a- lone But if you must know the re-

a- son hea- ven- ly skies are blue and why it breaks my heart to say good-bye

it's on- ly that I lo- v- e you you know I al- wa- ys

will you and your hea- ven- ly blues

Rac- in' through the timel- ess days while I'm so a- a- lone with laugh- ter in my dreams stay for a- while when I wake to find you're gone I'm ne- ver far from home

ne- ver too far gone to feel yo- ur smile But if you must know the re-

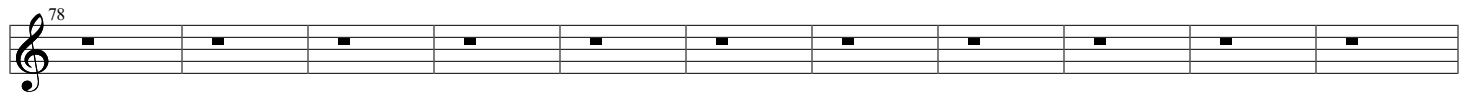

a- son hea- ven- ly skies are blue and why it breaks my heart to say good-bye

it's on- ly that I lo- v- e you you know I al- wa- ys

will you and your hea- ven- ly blues

You and your hea- ven- ly blues I love the cap-tured sor-

96
row be- yond to- mor- r- ow's blues to hear the caged bird sing her lone- ly

101
song she's sing- ing love for you and me and all the world to see

106
her ten- der strength re- mains for ev- er- y song But if

111
you must know the re- a- son hea- ven- ly skies are blue and why it breaks my

116
heart to say good-bye it's on- ly that I lo- v- e you you

121
know I al- wa- ys will you and your hea- ven- ly blues

127
you and your hea- ven- ly you and your hea- ven- ly you and your hea- ven- ly

$\text{♩} = 110$

133
blues