The musical score consists of several staves. At the top, a guitar staff shows a sequence of notes with 'x' marks above them, indicating fretted notes. Below this is a piano right hand staff with complex chordal textures and melodic lines. A piano left hand staff follows, with a more rhythmic and melodic line. Below these is a grand staff (treble and bass clef) with sustained chords and a melodic line in the right hand. The bottom section of the score shows a piano right hand staff with a melodic line and a piano left hand staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The score is marked with '48' at the beginning of the first staff.

Altamar Dutra - Balada Triste

The musical score is presented in a system of seven staves, each representing a different section of the piece. The notation includes treble clefs, time signatures (2/4 and 4/4), and various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals. The score is annotated with measure numbers (3, 7, 13, 19, 38, 43, 53, 58) and guitar-specific instructions like '3', '9', and '4'. Above several staves, there are guitar chord diagrams and numerical strings (e.g., 69,999985, 72,000031, 69,000015, 65,000000, 67,000000, 69,000015, 67,000000, 69,000004) which likely represent fret positions for specific chords or notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the seventh staff.
