V.S.

The image displays a musical score for a drum and SE (likely a string ensemble) performance, spanning measures 67 to 85. The score is organized into ten systems, each corresponding to a measure number. Each system consists of two staves: the upper staff represents the drum part, and the lower staff represents the SE part. The drum part is written using a standard drum notation with 'x' marks indicating hits on the snare, cymbal, and tom-toms. The SE part is written in a standard musical notation with notes and rests. The notation is consistent across all systems, with the drum part providing a steady, rhythmic accompaniment to the SE part. The SE part features a series of eighth notes, with some measures including a double bar line and a repeat sign. The overall structure is a continuous, rhythmic sequence of notes and rests, typical of a drum and SE performance.

87

Musical notation for measures 87 and 88. The notation consists of two staves. The upper staff shows a drum pattern with 'x' marks indicating hits. The lower staff shows a bass line with quarter notes and eighth notes.
