The image displays a musical score for the song "Ain't my bitch" by Metallica. It consists of ten systems of music. Each system includes a guitar staff with a treble clef and a bass staff with a bass clef. The guitar staffs feature a combination of standard musical notation (notes, rests, and accidentals) and guitar-specific notation (chords, bends, and vibrato). The bass staffs primarily use standard notation, with some instances of double bass notes. Measure numbers 6, 11, 15, 19, 23, 27, 31, 35, and 39 are indicated at the beginning of their respective systems. The tempo is marked as ♩ = 151,999939. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs at the end of the final system.
