This musical score is for a piece titled "Diskant" and consists of ten staves of music, numbered 187 through 212. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The music is written in a complex, multi-measure style with many beamed notes and rests. Above each staff, there are numerical strings representing rhythmic values, such as "159,300354" and "153,800018". The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The overall style is characteristic of a Baroque or Classical keyboard or lute piece.

The image displays a musical score for a piece titled "Diskant". It consists of ten staves of music, numbered 90 through 101. The notation is primarily in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several instances of triplets and complex rhythmic groupings. Above the staves, there are numerous tempo markings in the form of a quarter note followed by a decimal value (e.g., $\text{♩} = 140,400146$). Some of these markings are placed above specific measures, while others are placed above groups of measures. The overall style is that of a classical or early modern instrumental piece, possibly a lute or keyboard piece, given the title "Diskant" which often refers to a type of lute or a specific style of playing.
