The first line of music is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. It begins with a tempo marking of a quarter note equal to 138,000198. The melody consists of a sequence of eighth and sixteenth notes, many of which are beamed together, interspersed with rests. The notes are primarily in the lower register of the staff, with some higher notes in the second measure.

The second line of music continues the melody from the first line. It starts with a measure number '3' above the first note. The notation is similar to the first line, with eighth and sixteenth notes and rests. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a fermata, with the number '2' positioned above the final measure.
