The image displays a musical score for the guitar part of "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel. The score is presented in two staves: a standard musical notation staff (treble clef) and a corresponding guitar tablature staff (labeled T, A, B). The music is in G major and 4/4 time. The score includes measures 137 through 144, with measure numbers 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, and 144 indicated above the staff. The notation includes various chord voicings, including triads and dyads, and is annotated with fingerings (e.g., 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) and slurs. The tablature staff shows the fret numbers for each string, with some measures ending in an 'X' to indicate a muted string. The score is a transcription of the original recording, which is a fingerstyle piece.

The second system of the musical score for 'The Wind' consists of a treble clef staff and a three-part tablature staff. The treble staff contains two measures of music. The first measure starts with a fret number '139' above the first note. It features a sequence of eighth notes, some beamed together, and a triplet of eighth notes indicated by a '3' and a bracket. The second measure begins with a key signature change to one sharp (F#) and continues with eighth notes, including another triplet. The tablature staff has three lines labeled 'T', 'A', and 'B' on the left. It provides fret numbers for each note in the melody. The first measure of the tab includes frets 15, 15, 17, 20, 15, 16, 14, 17, 16, 14, and 17, 14. The second measure includes frets 15, 14, 10, 14, 12, 14, 12, 11, 9, 9, 7, 9, 7, 9, and 7. The system concludes with a double bar line.
