

Piano / Voice.

Henry Lodge

1885 - 1933

*Donegal Bay
Song*

Donegal Bay

Song

Music: Henry Lodge
Lyrics: Jean C. Havez
1914

Moderato

Piano f

5 Voice

Ev' - ry sha - dy dell That I knew so well
When the sha - dows fall Back in Don - e - gal

Vamp

mf p

9

On me's cast a spell, E - rin! And I'd like to go
You will hear me call, dear - ie, To the bay once more

12

Where the breez - es blow To the land I know; Take me near the san - dy shore, Spot that I a - dore; Take me

15

Ov - er there a - new, 'Neath the skies of blue, Where I court - ed you,
To my boy - hood's home, Where we used to roam By the rip - pling foam,

18

dear - ie, Let's re - call the days of long a - go.
dear - ie, Sing the same old love song, dear, once more.

23

We were sail - ing on Don - e - gal bay Where the moon spreads it's

Chorus
p-f

27

silv - er - y way; It's a love spot the fai - ries say, And that's why I was 31

bold en-ough to kiss you, sail-ing on Don-e-gal bay. Ir-ish hearts are 35

ev-er so gay, Oh! the fai-ries watch you court-in', they can see you a mile, They can tell the las-sie loves you by her beaut-i-ful smile And they know she'll say "Yes"

38

41

aft-er a while, On dear, old Don-e-gal Bay. We were

D.C.