(Patter)

That tune is cer-tain-ly di-vine, Lord-y good-ness how en-tranc-ing,
Some say the Spring Song is di-vine, Talk like that is out of sea-son, 12

Who on earth can keep from danc-ing? Right here is where we shine; -
What I like is some-thing pleas-in', Pine Ap-ple rag for mine; -

15

Oh my, but is - n't it a won - der - ful tune! It's by a gen' - man friend of Say hon - ey, list - en how that band syn - co - pates, Oh my, but is - n't it sub-mine; Good - ness me, it's all the can - dy, Lord, I hope they play that dan - dy lime! Lord - y, I could die a danc - ing, If they'd play us that en - tranc - ing tune all the time... Tease up to me, ease up... tune all the time... Cling to me, oh, sing to...

24

... to me, lov - ey, Squeeze up to me, freeze up..... to me, dov - ey,
... me, oh dear - est, Don't hur - ry so, don't wor - ry so, hear - est

27

My good - ness, man, you nev - er can lose me, Not when I hear that
That teas - ing rag, that squeez - ing rag, Lord - y, How I do love that 30

strain, Lord - y, don't be - lieve it, Keep step - pin', Bill, don't stop..... un - til I do;
drag, it's so fas - ci - nat - ing, Come, hon - ey love, my mon - ey love, slide me;

33

Stick to it, Kid, you al - ways did try to Set me a reel - ing,
Come syn - co - pate, don't hes - i - tate, glide me, Say, you're a dai - sy,

36

Lord what a feel - ing, Oh, that Pine Ap - ple Rag.
I'm go - ing cra - zy, Oh, that Pine Ap - ple Rag.

39

Hear me sigh, hear me cry... for that Pine - ap - ple Rag,
