

Piano / Voice.

George (Rosey) Rosenberg

1864 - 1936

Too Late

Too Late

Music: George Rosey
Lyrics: Frank Tannehill Jr.
1900

With much feeling.

3

1. Too late, my heart was in your
2. Too late, the west-ern sun is

6

keep - ing, To share a - like what life or death might bring _____ In sink - ing, 'Tis Hea-ven's smile up - on the lone - ly earth, _____ And vain the love that I was seek - - ing, You shad - ows fall, and I am think - - ing, And 11

rall. a tempo

thought my heart an i - dle, emp - ty thing; - - - And won - d'ring, think of Him who gave us birth; - - - To 13

un poco accel.

now you come a - gain to con - quer, And Him, a - lone my love I of - fer, To 15

plead that you may know your fate; - - - But Him, who know - eth what is best; - - - Then 17

a temporit.

nev - er, nev - er more I'll trust you, - We'll say fare - come to me, souls hea - vy lad - en, - And I will 19

well be - cause it is too late! - - - give your wea - ry heart its rest! - - -

21

Too late, the fire of love is em - bers, - Too

Refrain

24

late, to call it back to life, - 'Tis sad to know that each re-

27

5

mem - bers, - For wound-ed hearts show scars of strife. - Too late, which means there is no mor - row, - Too late, for faith is shat - tered,

30

33

fled; - And each shall bear the cross of sor - row, And each must 36

1. think the oth - er dead. - - - 2. dead. - - -