

Piano / Voice.

George (Rosey) Rosenberg

1864 - 1936

*The Night
You Promised Me
Concert Song*

The Night You Promised Me

Music: George Rosey
Lyrics: Frank Tannehill Jr.
1902

Moderato

Piano

4

1. You pro-mised me, you'd love me al - ways, You
2. You pro-mised me, you'd love me al - ways, Long kissed me, and my doubts were stilled, You said the rose must bask in years have passed, and still we live, This life that brings us but a 10

7

sun - light, Or by the win-ter's frost be killed, You heart - ache, Say that you'll meet me and for - give. If said that should my love for you grow cold,      The ro - se's fate, you knew your so you'll find the same heart waits for you,      You'll find the same arms op - en own would be,      You called up - on the stars to      wit - ness,      That long - ing - ly,      And love's sweet kiss may bring back      mem' - ries,      Once you were mine, you prom - ised me;      -      -      - more, per - haps, You'll prom - ise me;      -      -      -

Can heart love heart, and say fare - well, Then life's not worth the

Chorus

25

liv - ing, Look in your soul and let it tell, That you'll be just and still for - giv - ing, For - get the years, of 31

28

sad re-gret, Think what our fu - ture may be, I know you ne-ver can for - get, The night you prom - ised me. -

34

D.C.