

Piano / Voice.

Harry J. Lincoln

1878 - 1937

In Tennessee Song

In Tennessee

Song Fox-Trot

Music: Harry J. Lincoln
(As Carl D. Vandersloot.)
Words: Ray Sherwood
1921

Moderato

Piano f

4

8

I hear that whis-tle blow and it sounds so good to me,
I thought I'd see the world so I start-ed out to roam,

12

I mean the one they blow on the train for Ten - nes - see;
But all night long I dream of a place called "Home sweet Home,"

16

And if you care to take a trip where your heart will be at rest
For an-y shack is par-a-dise in the old home town to me;

20

You'll be hap-py, dog-gone hap-py in the land I love the best.
Days of clo-ver lived all o-ver back in dear old Ten-nes-see.

24

Won't you come a-long with me to my home in Ten-nes-see.

Chorus
p-f

28

see, You'll see my dad and mam-my wait-ing there to 32

wel - come you; Where the blue of south - ern skies _____ and the breez - es seem to har - mon -

36

ize. _____ An - y time you want a peach to sit up - on your knee,

39

all you have to do is go right out and shake the tree, You'll be glad you came with me _____ when I go back home to Ten - nes - see. Won't you see. _____

42