

Rainbow Warrior

Týr
Eric The Red

Words & Music by Heri Joensen

Standard tuning

♩ = 120

intro

S-Gt7

verse 1

From the fields of concrete slabs

f

towers of stone 'cross an ocean before his bow came the haggard Warrior all clad in rust of the Rainbow to tell us how Our ways unchanged for centuries

do dismay concrete hearts Wake emotions perfect for his confidence tricks And though we may l

41 we are still animals

44 Weakening of the food chain the only way that I s

47 is to Curse the weak link chorus

51 What's out Come your down fall Lights out

p f p

58 May your ship sink, Rainbow Warrior floats no more, there are no Lights on

f

62 That obtrusive creep all What's on verse 2

67

72 By the fields of good and green mountains of home

76 in an ocean beneath the sun Stood the haggard Warrior

79 now his crusade fame and fortune it had begun So

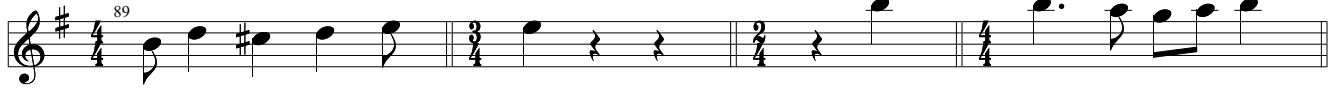

83 holier than thou art all marine mammals friend

Change your evil ways now

or with terror I strike

Why can't you do like we do

pay your way 'round the blood

When it's on the table

you won't know whence it come

I say

Curse the weak link

What's out

chorus

p

Come your down fall

Light's out

May your ship sink, Rainbow Warrior

f

p

f

floats no more there are no Lights on

That obtrusive creep all

What's on

bridge

intro

142

To the fields of concrete slabs towers of stone 'cross an ocean

verse 3

146

behind his stern Went the haggard Warrior all clad in rust

149

of the Rainbow when will they learn That nature is against them

152

156

Weakling of the food chain the only way that I see

159

is to Curse the weak link What's out

chorus

162

Come your down fall Lights out May your ship sink, Rainbow Warrior

167

f p f

floats no more, there are no Lights on That obtrusive creep all

173

What's on

177