

Cold and Lonesome

The Outlaws
Hurry Sundown

Words & Music by Harvey Dalton Arnold

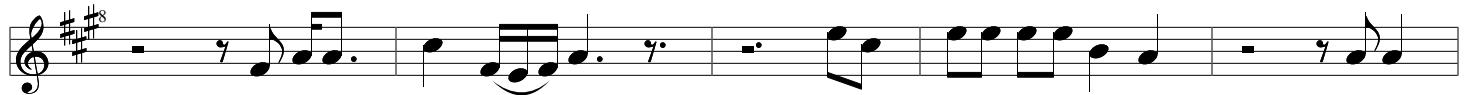

Standard tuning

Fast Rock ♩ = 132

S-Gt

f Well've been tom- cat- tin' for such a long timen- o- w run-nin' in- to o- pen ar- ms just to walkright o- u- t but all that a free- dom justdon't get it any-mo- re and this cold and lone- some feel- in' has got to g- o

There'shissweet younge la- dy keeps on com- ing a- rou- n- d and I'm thin-kin' thatmay- be e- e yeah this is love, wefound she said shecouldsave me

34
there's no real way to know but this cold and lone- some feel- in' has got to g- o

♩ = 116
39
Well I once had one gave her all my love I was 45

so sure she was sat- isfi- ed then the chan- ges came and brought on the ra- in

♩ = 132
49
and my sun re- fused to sh- ine

♩ = 116
58
Wo- man hold me near lis- ten here I got to love you one more time if it ends

♩ = 132
63
the same we won't be to bl- ame we'll just move on down the li- ne Yes this road keeps roll- in'

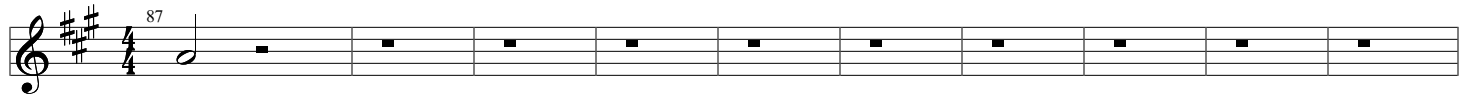

68
and down it I must t- o- o on- ly wish I was hold- ing no- bo- dy

73
else but you you can read it in my let- ters you can hear it on the ph- o-

78
n- e but this cold and lone- some feel- in has got to g- o- o yes this cold and lone- some feel- in' has got to g- o got to go

