The first system of the piano score consists of two staves. The right hand (treble clef) plays a series of chords in a 4/4 time signature, starting with a quarter rest followed by a quarter note chord, then a quarter rest followed by a quarter note chord, and so on. The left hand (bass clef) plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment, starting with a quarter rest followed by an eighth note, then a quarter rest followed by an eighth note, and so on.

4

The second system of the piano score continues the piece. The right hand plays chords, and the left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The notation is consistent with the first system.

7

The third system of the piano score continues the piece. The right hand plays chords, and the left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The notation is consistent with the previous systems.

10

The fourth system of the piano score continues the piece. The right hand plays chords, and the left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The notation is consistent with the previous systems.

13

The fifth system of the piano score continues the piece. The right hand plays chords, and the left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The notation is consistent with the previous systems.

16

The sixth system of the piano score continues the piece. The right hand plays chords, and the left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The notation is consistent with the previous systems.
