♩ = 140,000137

The first system of musical notation is written on a single staff with a treble clef. It begins with a tempo marking '♩ = 140,000137'. The notation consists of a continuous sequence of eighth notes across four measures, with a bar line after the second measure. The notes are arranged in a pattern that suggests a specific melodic line, though the exact pitch values are not explicitly labeled.

5

The second system of musical notation starts with a measure rest labeled '5'. It continues with a series of eighth notes across four measures, with a bar line after the second measure. The notes are arranged in a pattern similar to the first system, maintaining the melodic flow.

7

The third system of musical notation starts with a measure rest labeled '7'. It continues with a series of eighth notes across four measures, with a bar line after the second measure. The notation concludes with a double bar line at the end of the fourth measure.
